Announcements

Update on New School/Church: We are still in a waiting mode as the City continues to review all of the documentation required prior to receiving the building permit. It has been a long and arduous process with a few, lengthy time setbacks along the way. The City’s requirements are exact and extensive, and they are not inclined to move quickly. It has taken about 6-8 weeks longer than the time frame that they originally gave us and that we had expected. Hopefully, we will receive our permit within the next week or so.
