

Prophetic Passage #1 — Daniel 8:14

- Daniel 8:27—Apparently Daniel is sickened by the fact that he did not understand the vision of the _____.
- Daniel 8:26—God's angel instructs Daniel to _____ up that vision. Though it is true, it is not for his day but for the time of the end.
- Daniel 9:22-27—The angel's response to Daniel's prayers reveals that the 2300-day prophecy has less to do with the earthly temple in Daniel's time but more to do with the heavenly temple in the end of time.
- Daniel 12:4, 9—This sealed vision is later referred to as a sealed _____ to be open at the time of the end.

Prophetic Passage #2 — Revelation 10:11

- Revelation 10:1, 2—John sees an angel with a little book that is _____ in his hand.
- Revelation 10:8—Reminiscent of Jeremiah and Ezekiel when commissioned with a message (cf. Jer. 15:16; Ezek. 2:8-3:2), John represents God's end-time people in this vision and is commissioned with the message of this open book. This was historically fulfilled in the _____ movement of the 1840s.
- Revelation 10:9-10—Its sweet-turned-_____ experience finds historical fulfillment in the _____ of 1844.
- Revelation 10:11—The bitter belly experience of God's people in 1844 was not to be the end of the story. They were to preach the sure word of _____ yet again (cf. 2 Pet. 1:19).

Prophetic Passage #1 — Daniel 8:14

- Daniel 8:27—Apparently Daniel is sickened by the fact that he did not understand the vision of the _____.
- Daniel 8:26—God's angel instructs Daniel to _____ up that vision. Though it is true, it is not for his day but for the time of the end.
- Daniel 9:22-27—The angel's response to Daniel's prayers reveals that the 2300-day prophecy has less to do with the earthly temple in Daniel's time but more to do with the heavenly temple in the end of time.
- Daniel 12:4, 9—This sealed vision is later referred to as a sealed _____ to be open at the time of the end.

Prophetic Passage #2 — Revelation 10:11

- Revelation 10:1, 2—John sees an angel with a little book that is _____ in his hand.
- Revelation 10:8—Reminiscent of Jeremiah and Ezekiel when commissioned with a message (cf. Jer. 15:16; Ezek. 2:8-3:2), John represents God's end-time people in this vision and is commissioned with the message of this open book. This was historically fulfilled in the _____ movement of the 1840s.
- Revelation 10:9-10—Its sweet-turned-_____ experience finds historical fulfillment in the _____ of 1844.
- Revelation 10:11—The bitter belly experience of God's people in 1844 was not to be the end of the story. They were to preach the sure word of _____ yet again (cf. 2 Pet. 1:19).

cont'd

- ❑ This resilient commitment to the divine commission of Rev. 10:11 was historically fulfilled by those who persevered in the aftermath of the Great Disappointment and eventually became the _____ movement as we know it today.

Prophetic Passage #3 — Revelation 14:6-12

- ❑ Rev. 14:6—This proclamation of the everlasting gospel “to every nation, tribe, tongue and people” is the _____ to the prophetic commission of Rev. 10:11.
- ❑ When we choose to join the voice of our lives with the voice of these three angels’ messages that call the world to look to Jesus, we are taking on a prophetic _____. We are, in fact, a living _____ of Bible prophecy!

“And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.” ~ Acts 2:42

W MORE Answers in Prophecy: Join us the next three Wednesdays, 7pm as we dig deeper into the Rapture, the Mark of the Beast, and the US in Bible Prophecy. Wednesdays, 7pm in the Fellowship Hall (Oct 20, 27, Nov. 3).

Th House of Prayer: Songs, testimonies, and united prayer. Thursdays, 7pm in the Conference Rm (starting Oct. 28).

Sa Grounded: a Sabbath School class for those new to faith or wanting a new start. These weekly studies will focus on growing a deeply rooted relationship with Jesus. Sabbaths, 9:30am in Adult Classroom 1 (starting Oct. 23).

cont'd

- ❑ This resilient commitment to the divine commission of Rev. 10:11 was historically fulfilled by those who persevered in the aftermath of the Great Disappointment and eventually became the _____ movement as we know it today.

Prophetic Passage #3 — Revelation 14:6-12

- ❑ Rev. 14:6—This proclamation of the everlasting gospel “to every nation, tribe, tongue and people” is the _____ to the prophetic commission of Rev. 10:11.
- ❑ When we choose to join the voice of our lives with the voice of these three angels’ messages that call the world to look to Jesus, we are taking on a prophetic _____. We are, in fact, a living _____ of Bible prophecy!

“And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.” ~ Acts 2:42

W MORE Answers in Prophecy: Join us the next three Wednesdays, 7pm as we dig deeper into the Rapture, the Mark of the Beast, and the US in Bible Prophecy. Wednesdays, 7pm in the Fellowship Hall (Oct 20, 27, Nov. 3).

Th House of Prayer: Songs, testimonies, and united prayer. Thursdays, 7pm in the Conference Rm (starting Oct. 28).

Sa Grounded: a Sabbath School class for those new to faith or wanting a new start. These weekly studies will focus on growing a deeply rooted relationship with Jesus. Sabbaths, 9:30am in Adult Classroom 1 (starting Oct. 23).

